Term 1 Week 8

16th March 2016

Dear Parents/Carers,

What a wonderful celebration of learning was Catholic Schools Week!

Beginning with our joining the parish community in the celebration of Mass on Sunday, we came together to enjoy the hospitality of our tireless Parent Association, visited classrooms where children proudly shared their learning and took the opportunity to meet our teachers. We hosted a number of prospective 2017 families who toured the school. They all commented on the positive, supportive community they experienced that Sunday. Thank you everyone for participating and valuing the efforts of the Parent Association and school staff.

On Sunday, we begin Holy Week, remembering the events that led up to the crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus. The students will be participating in prayer activities each day as part of their Religious Education lessons, in place of our weekly assemblies.

Morning assemblies on Monday 21st April and the Tuesday 29th April have been cancelled. Term Award Assembly will be held on Monday 4th April. Parents of award recipients will be notified next week.

Tomorrow, Friday 19th March, students will celebrate St Joseph's Day by looking at how Joseph, trusting God, managed the challenges he faced in his life. Students will particularly look at the emotions Joseph went through when Jesus 'went missing' on the journey from Jerusalem to Nazareth and how his trust in God gave him the courage to parent the child Jesus. An amazing man!

Please send Easter 'goodies' in tomorrow for our mammoth Easter Raffle, drawn next Wednesday. We like to have lots of winners....so we need lots of prizes! Children wear normal sports uniform tomorrow...and a crazy hat!

I will be on leave from 23rd March until 8th April. Ms Nicholls has been appointed Acting Principal and Mr Baird will be Acting Assistant Principal. Both Ms Nicholls and Mr Baird are experienced in these acting roles and I thank them for 'stepping up' while I'm on leave.

During my leave, I will be visiting shrines and churches in Malta and Sicily. In 2014, I visited the places where St Paul preached in Turkey and Greece. This pilgrimage, I will follow St Paul's footsteps in Malta - an exciting journey.

May the blessings of the risen Christ be with you all over Easter and beyond,

Fran Jackson
Principal

Sunday's Scripture some background to the reading

"What did Jesus mean when He said, 'He who is without sin can cast the first stone'?"

Jesus was teaching in the temple when the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman who had been caught in sin, and they asked Him if she should be stoned as required by the Law of Moses. However, they cared nothing about this woman; they were using her to trap Jesus. In their minds, if He told them to set the woman free, they could claim He did not hold to the Law of Moses. If He told them to stone her, they could claim He was not the Saviour; and, if He said nothing, they could claim He lacked wisdom. Jesus did not answer immediately but stooped and wrote something on the ground, and they kept pressing Him. Finally, the Lord said, in essence, "Go ahead and stone her because that is what the Law requires. But the Law also requires that the first stone be thrown by a person who is sinless in connection with this charge"

There is no doubt that this woman was guilty of a capital offense and that the Law required that she be stoned, but the Law also required that the guilty man be stoned as well, that witnesses be produced, and that a witness begin the execution. But the Jewish leaders came with venom against Jesus and were thwarted by their own single-minded hate. They did not produce the guilty man, and they were unwilling or unable to produce the required witnesses. After He wrote a second time, the Jews left one by one, from the oldest to the youngest, without saying another word. Jesus then set the woman free with a warning to her to sin no more.

Jesus was the only sinless person in the temple scene, and, instead of condemning the woman, He looked ahead to His work on the cross and offered her life. Likewise, we should use every possible opportunity to forgive and to reach out with the gospel and the love of Christ. In this year of mercy let us be merciful as Christ was merciful.

School Calendar Notes

This week we have our Bullying No Way Day on Friday. Our students will be exploring the idea of feelings and emotions and how they combine to make us who we are.

Next week is Holy Week. The children will remember the key events of Palm Sunday, The Washing of the Disciples Feet and The Agony in the Garden in three morning assemblies. This will be followed by Station of the Cross which will be held in the school grounds on Thursday.

Our Easter celebration will follow on Tuesday 29th March.

NSW Premiers Reading Challenge 2016

This year we are encouraging all of our students to participate in the NSW Premier's Reading Challenge.

"The Challenge aims to encourage a love of reading for leisure and pleasure in students, and to enable them to experience quality literature. It is not a competition but a challenge to each student to read, to read more and to read more widely. The Premier's Reading Challenge (PRC) is available for all NSW students in Kindergarten to Year 9, in government, independent, Catholic and home schools." (PRC website- <https://online.det.nsw.edu.au/prc/home.html>)

The 2016 Challenge opened on the 7th March 2016 and runs till the 19th August 2016.

The website has lots of helpful information such as reading requirements, booklists and rules.

Many students have taken home a Reading Log Sheet to start recording their Book Log for the Challenge. Copies of the Log Sheet can be downloaded from <https://online.det.nsw.edu.au/prc/home.html> or from our SkoolBag App.

The rules for each age group are outlined in the table below. Books in our St Joseph's Library that are on the PRC Booklists have a coloured label on the top of their spine. Pink for K-2, Orange for 3-4 and Green for 5-6.

Challenge	K-2	3-4	5-6
Number of books you must read	30	20	20
Minimum number of PRC books	25	15	15
Maximum number of Personal Choice books	5	5	5
PRC booklists you can read from	K-2, and above	3-4, and above	5-6, and above
St Joseph's library books colour labels	Pink, Orange and Green	Orange and Green	Green

More information on how to log your student's books online will be available soon.

Happy adventures in reading to all our Challenge participants.

Greg Alexander Trophy

On Tuesday, nine keen and enthusiastic Stage 3 league players (Zane Diehm, Cooper Park, Taine Paul, Atel Dau, Brock Rodziewicz, Jon Page, Hayden Bayley, Rishikesh Manoj Nair and Zaid Lehn) gathered to play for the Greg Alexander Shield.

Facing strong opposition, and putting their bodies on the line, our team narrowly lost the first game 20-12 but rallied in the second and third game winning them both. This meant, that we were tied in second place in our division but missing out on a place in the semi-finals on a for/against point score.

I'd like to thank the parents for their support and encouragement of the team throughout the day and to Ms Devine for her great work as Team Manager.
